MEGHAN COMBS

SKILLS

Efficiency: I pride myself on working in an organized and methodical way, and completing tasks promptly

Communication: In addition to my written and verbal skills, as a developer I can effectively communicate with software engineers

EXPERIENCE

Full-Stack Developer Apprentice | CoreTechs, Inc., NC | 2017-2018

I built 4 unique MVC web apps concentrating on beautiful front-end design, and logical back-end code

Accomplishments: Due to my proficiency, my instructor asked that I mentor the other students

Gallery Manager | Blumka Gallery, NYC | 2015-2017

My main tasks were database administration, art fair coordination, and project and finance management

Accomplishments: This role required extreme initiative and the wearing of many hats. In keeping with this, I modernized the gallery's website, database, and social media presence; I also established a Simple IRA retirement plan, streamlined bookkeeping practices, and organized the entire office

Volunteer Coordinator | Rubin Museum, NYC | 2010-2014

I supervised and trained 50+ volunteers, planned events and meetings, and collaborated with museum departments to create unique tasks

Accomplishments: I moved up within the Visitor Experience Department from coat check to Volunteer Coordinator

EDUCATION

M.A. Art History-Museum Studies
CUNY City College, New York City

B.A. Art History, Magna cum Laude
University of North Carolina, Greensboro

meghankcombs
@gmail.com

(336) 829-8283

FURTHER STUDY

Full-Stack Developer Certification
Coder Foundry/CoreTechs, Inc., Kernersville